

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Shirish Patil, PMP, MBA, PMI-, Lead Enterprise Data Architect Sitek Inc, USA

Shirish Patil, Director Data Services at Sitek Inc, USA is an accomplished, innovative, and highly driven IT leader who has over 20 years of experience in empowering customers with solutions which delivers Right Data at Right time for Right People. Shirish is based in Austin, Texas and has helped customers such as Office of Attorney General, Health and Human Services, Department of Transportation, Kapsch TrafficCom, Duke Energy, FRS Global, Verizon Wireless, Mortgage Cadence, ETech Inc. He leverages data, processes & technologies to create strategies and solutions to achieve organizational objectives by designing large scale data-centric systems with technical and thought leadership in transformative agile environments. Shirish earned his Master of Computer Applications from Gujarat University, India in 2004. Shirish has presented at many international conferences as a keynote speaker on data management and data security topics. He is Working Group member at IEEE Standards Association – P3800 Standards for Data Trading System and also serves on Editorial Board, Technical Program Committee and Reviewer for several international journals and conferences on Databases, Data Mining, Database Management Systems, Computer Science, Cyber Security, Information Technology and Software Engineering. Shirish is a Certified AWS Solutions Architect, Certified Data Management Professional (CDMP), Project Management Professional (PMP), PMI-Agile Certified Practitioner (PMI-ACP), ITIL certified and has several Oracle certifications. His field of expertise includes people leadership, IT and management consulting, enterprise-wide information and data management strategy, data architecture, data governance, data quality, data security, data modeling, database performance, data solutions delivery and business intelligence capabilities.